THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND.

There is still something to be desired in the matter of interest in the Free Doctors' Fund for Sick Children. Contributions come in with every mail, and there are many letters filled with warm sympathy for the little sufferers. As a rule, the majority of these come from persons of moderate means, from those who are richer in feeting than in worldly goods. Is there not a pathos in this! That those who can not so well spare even a dollar are the readiest to put their hands in their pockets for the benefit of the small, ailing children?

But it is a reproach to such as are blessed with bank accounts. Where are these rich people, on whom the poor have Hotter the Weather Bigger the Proof.

As the weather grows warm, the sale of James Pyle's Pearline Washing Compound rapidly increases. This proves that many women recognize the fact that PEARLINE makes washing and cleaning very much easier than when done with the ordinary means. Proves also that summer clothing, being of delicate texture and color, will not stand the rough usage necessary when washed with soap, and establishes the fact that PEARLINE, in doing away with the rubbing, lessens the wear and tear and fills a very important place. Delightful for bathing in fresh or salt water. Its ingredients render it
